For Immediate Release

RICHMOND, INDIANA – Renowned author Kurt Vonnegut took an unflinching look at the world, tempered with a satirical eye and sardonic sense of humor. Director of programs at the Kurt Vonnegut Museum and Library (KVML), Meredith Cummings, will speak at Morrisson-Reeves Library. She will give an insider's look at the life and times of Mr. Vonnegut by sharing details of his passion for writing.

In honor of his wit and wisdom, the Kurt Vonnegut Museum and Library champions the literary, artistic and cultural contributions of the late writer, artist, teacher and Indianapolis native Kurt Vonnegut. The library and museum serves as a cultural and educational resource unique to the nation. The KVML, based in Kurt Vonnegut's hometown of Indianapolis, champions Vonnegut's legacy and the principles of free expression, common decency, and peaceful coexistence he advocated. These ideals provide the building blocks upon which KVML stands: We believe we can make a difference by our responses to the big questions and issues of our time and do it with civility.
